THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY,
TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of "Notes and Queries on China and Japan," has reached its fourteenth volume. The Review discusses those topics which are of importance to the student of Chinese literature, history, politics, and social conditions. It includes many interesting notes and original papers on the Arts, Sciences, Education, Literature, History, Mythology, Literature, Social Customs, and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been added, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to "Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office."

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Chinese Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Ritter, Dutschneider, and Hirth. Prof. von Hoffmann, and Messrs. Balfour, Walker, Stent, Faber, Kopp, Parker, Playfair, Giles, Piton, and Taylor—all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subjects.

The Subscription is fixed at $5.00 per annum, postage included—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to. Address: "Manager, China Mail Office."

"The China Review—Oriental Empire, excellent table of contents."—The Chinese Review.

"The Publication always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison with preceding numbers."—Chinese Empire.

"This number contains several articles of interest and value."—North-China Herald.

"The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterizes this a very valuable and interesting journal. A very interesting and readable number. Me-tropolitans will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritzsche on 'The Annual of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking,' and the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. 'Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa,' by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notes of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of 'The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua,' and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting."—North-China Daily News.

"A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronize."—Chrysanthemum.

"The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the editorial force is a very valuable and interesting journal. A very
